

Does a robot wear a nappy?

Diane McKergan
Mum to Ben and Calum

“Does a Robot wear a Nappy?” Calum said to Ben one day,
“Or does he use the potty, then just run outside to play?”

“Does an Alien have special pants to keep him nice and dry?
And if he had an ‘accident’ would you see him cry?”

“Does a Superhero have a step to help him reach the seat...
Or does he fly up to the loo, then sit and swing his feet!”

“What do you do Calum?”, asked Ben, “Can you use the loo?
Is it just the only place where you pee and poo?”

“Oh Yes!” said Calum, “I am big, I always use the loo,
And always flush and wash my hands, I know just what to do!”

“Then I get a sticker, and at the end of every week,
For being so good all week long, I get a special Treat!”
